

Ellesmere

Academic Success 2018

Elena Bateman - Grades A*AA

University of East Anglia - Medicine

As a Captain of Talbot House and a stalwart in the Chapel Choir, she also played in the College Sinfonia and passed her Grade 8 Flute. Her EPQ on medical ethics was published in the Woodard Journal as an example to other schools of academic excellence.

Julius Haslam - Grades A*AB

Bristol University - Geography with Innovation

Julius made a significant contribution to the debating and Model United Nations team which took part in an international conference at Leiden in The Netherlands. His EPQ on the issue of de-criminalising drugs achieved an A* from the examiners.

Elinor Haworth - Grades A*AA

Cardiff University - Medicine

A College Prefect and House Captain of Woodard, Elinor sang in the Chapel Choir and toured with them to Paris and Rome. A member of the CCF she competed in the Ashburton Shooting competition, learnt how to sail and gained her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award.

Libby Hughes - A*AB

Cardiff University - Biomedical Science

A multi-talented individual Libby became Head Girl at College and excelled in most sports, representing College teams in Hockey, Netball and Tennis. She completed her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award in the Upper Sixth and is taking a Gap Year travelling.

Eoin Murtagh - Grades AAA

Exeter University - Management with Marketing

A House Captain of Woodard he organised many events including directing the House Play and received a personal award for best lead actor at the House Play Festival. He captained the College 2nd XI football team and represented his House in sporting competitions.

Maksymilian Graczyk - Grades A*A*A*A*

Imperial College, London - Computing

Maks joined us from his home in Poland and while here reached the final of the Computing Olympiad at Cambridge University and gained Gold in the UK Senior Maths Challenge. For his EPQ he researched the use of artificial intelligence in face recognition and designed his own app which gained him an A*.

Eve Davies - Grades A*A*A*C

Leeds Beckett University - Interior Architecture and Design

Eve gained an A* in her EPQ assessment with her wedding dress made out of waste materials design. As House Captain of Wakeman-Lambart she also completed her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award and regularly played first team Hockey and Netball for College.

Sunetra Chatterjee - Grades A*AB

Nottingham University - Medicine

Achieving academic prizes in Biology and Chemistry and a Distinction in her ESB, she also completed her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award. A College Prefect and respected NCO in the Combined Cadet Force where she won awards in national shooting competitions at Bisley.

Jack Shillinglaw - Grades A*AB

Loughborough University - Economics

Jack joined the Sixth Form from his school in Wallasey and became a member of the Titans Swimming squad where he won two English championships and is a British National Silver medal winner. He managed his training and event schedule with academic excellence.

Victor Zhao - Grades A*A*A*A*A

Trinity College, Cambridge - Computer Science

Victor completed his A level Maths in one year and was awarded 600/600 marks. He took four more subjects in Upper Sixth and excelled in the Informatics Olympiad and Senior Mathematics Kangaroo. He also sang in the Choir, played clarinet and was a College Prefect.

James Jefferies - A*A*A*

Birmingham University - Civil Engineering

James joined us from the Lakelands Academy. He competed in many external subject competitions and represented his House whether in cross-country running or House Singing. His EPQ on Nazi persecution of the Jews took him beyond his usual subject syllabuses and was awarded an A*.

Wayne Wang - Grades A*A*AA

Imperial College, London - Engineering

Wayne moved to Shropshire from China and quickly achieved success in Physics and Chemistry Olympiads. His model of a roller coaster received an A* for his EPQ. He sang with the College Choir in the Royal Festival Hall and completed his Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award.

International Baccalaureate (IB)

Luke Parker - 40 points

Birmingham University - History

Luke played for a number of senior squads and particularly enjoyed football and cricket. He was a leading member of the Debating team and attended several Model United Nations conferences in this country and abroad. In the Lower Sixth he had the opportunity to visit Auschwitz as part of the Holocaust Memorial programme. He also became a College Prefect.

Kate Williamson - 37 points

York University - Law

As House Captain of St Oswald's she made sterling contributions to College Netball and Hockey teams. Whilst in the CCF she completed her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award and represented both the British Schools and Wales in shooting. Her work experience with an international legal firm in Dubai helped her university application.

BTEC Diploma

Bethan Edwards - D*D*D* (BTEC Sport)

Salford University - Broadcast Journalism

Sam Ellis D*D*D* (BTEC Sport) + A Level Business

Loughborough University - Sports Marketing

Tom Hill D*D*D* (BTEC Sport) + A Level Business

Oxford Brookes - Real Estate Management

Ellesmere

www.ellesmere.com

Tel: 01691 622 321

For more insights into Ellesmere College, follow us on:

/ellesmerecoll

@ellesmerecoll

ellesmere_college