Lexington County School District One will officially award the referenced contract at 4:30 p.m. on the specified Award Date. The Contractor must not commence any work related to the contract before both the contract's effective date and the receipt of a formal purchase order. This ensures that all parties are aligned and operations begin only when officially authorized.

Any actual bidder, offeror, contractor, or subcontractor who is aggrieved by the contract award decision has the right to formally protest the award. Such protests must be submitted in writing within seven days from the date of the award notification in accordance with the District's Code, Section 4210. To be considered valid, protests must be formally addressed to the Chief Procurement Officer. They can be submitted either electronically via email to jmiller@lexington1.net, or physically by mail or hand delivery to the following address: 100 Tarrar Springs Road, Attn: Procurement Services/Chief Procurement Officer, Lexington, South Carolina 29072. All written protests must be received within the specified timeframe to be eligible for review.
