

For Immediate Release

Media Information Contact:

Tel: 201-512-0099

Email: mahwahmuseum@gmail.com

Special Event: Foil Figures in Action: Managing Conflict Resolution through Art.*A Hands-On Art Workshop for Youth and Adults (ages 8+ recommended)

On Sunday, February 2, 2025, from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM, Dr. Judith Peck will host a unique and interactive workshop at the museum titled "Foil Figures in Action: Managing Conflict Resolution through Art." This hands-on activity invites participants to create two aluminum foil figures engaged in active poses, exploring emotions such as anger, fear, love, or loneliness.

Through guided discussions and creative repositioning, participants will discover how art can facilitate conflict resolution in family and school settings. Registration is required for this event, and open now. Reserve your spot today at www.mahwahmuseum.org or <https://www.zeffy.com/ticketing/foil-figures-in-action-facilitating-conflict-resolution-through-art-with-dr-judith-peck> . $10/person non-member, $5/person member.

About Judith Peck:

About Judith Peck: Judith Peck's sculptures are in approximately eighty public and private collections, including the American Art Collection of the Yale University Gallery, the Ghetto Fighters Museum in Israel, and cultural and religious institutions here and abroad. Judith Peck is professor emeritus of Art at Ramapo College of New Jersey in Mahwah. She is the author of eight non-fiction books, three novels and two children's books.

The Mahwah Museum is open on Saturdays, October-June from 1-4 pm. Admission to Mahwah Museum is $5 per person. Admission is free for children 18 and under, students, and Mahwah Museum members. The Museum is located at 201 Franklin Turnpike, Mahwah, NJ. Visit the museum website at www.mahwahmuseum.org for further details.

Judith Peck

workshops at the Mahwah Museum

Foil Figures in Action: Facilitating Conflict Resolution through Art

A Hands-On Art Workshop for Youth and Adults (ages 8+ recommended). This interactive activity invites participants to create two aluminum foil figures engaged in active poses, exploring emotions such as anger, fear, love, or loneliness. Through guided discussions and creative repositioning, participants will discover how art can facilitate conflict resolution in family and school settings.

1 PM | Sun. Feb. 2, 2025

$10/ Person
$5/ Members

Dr. Judith Peck
Sculptor

mahwahmuseum.org | @mahwahmuseum

201 Franklin Tpke
Mahwah, NJ 07430