Today's Gospel Reading

Reflection: As Jesus called people, he recognised their skills and spoke to them in their own language, in words and styles that they were comfortable with. How might Jesus speak to you?

Question: What might be holding you back from following Jesus' call to you?

Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, sometimes I am confused by religion. Sometimes I doubt your existence. Help me to understand that you are calling me to be your friend, to get to know you. Help that friendship grow. Help me understand that you love me as I am, but that you are also calling me to grow. Help me to look forward to our journey together. Amen

Today's Gospel Reading (or watch the 2min video below)

Let us Pray:

Lord Jesus, give us courage to follow you. Give us strength to cast out into the deep. Give us confidence to meet the unknown future.

We trust in you, even if we don't understand what or why you are calling us. Give us the humility of Pete, and his willingness to do your will. Help us to say “Yes” to you in all things. Amen

Thursday 16th January

2025 is a Jubilee year– which means a special year of forgiveness.

This year we are called to focus on hope.

Let's pray the prayer 'Fire of Hope':

Loving God, we thank you for the opportunities we have to forge strong and lasting bonds with our sisters and brothers around the globe.

Lord God, you are love, and in love we reach out, allowing ourselves to be touched by the joys and griefs of all your people.

Light within us the fire of hope, and a passion for change.
May the stories we hear move us from indifference to care, from distance to deep connection,

So that together, we might all find the joy of living alongside each other as one human family in our common home.

Amen

CST FRIDAY: The Common Good

Watch this video \(4min\)

‘Fratelli Tutti’ is a letter written to the world by Pope Francis in 2020.

How can we live out the challenge of Fratelli Tutti, in our school, our families, our communities?

COMMON GOOD

We must seek the good of the broader community with solutions that address the concerns of every person – that is, each person and the whole person – and not just our own self interest.
