

Public Participation at Board Meetings

Procedures for In-Person Public Comments during Regular Meetings

Members of the public who want to speak to the Board in person are invited to do so during the public comment section of the regular meeting agenda, subject to the limitations of and compliance with the procedures in this regulation and the policy that accompanies it.

A person or representative of a group or organization intending to speak in person during the public comment portion of the meeting shall be required to sign up on a form provided by the Board prior to the beginning of the meeting. On the day of the Board meeting, the sign-up sheet for public comment shall be available in the office of the Board Clerk (The District Support Center) during the regular business hours of 7:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, thereafter; it will be available in the boardroom. The person signing up shall give the subject to be addressed, his or her name, email address and telephone number and, if applicable, the group or organization the person represents.

No person shall be permitted to sign up for another person nor shall anyone be permitted to exchange time or yield time to another. At the beginning of the "Opportunity for Audience" section of the meeting, the speakers will be called by the Board president in the order in which they are listed on the sign-in sheet.
