FIELD EDUCATION PROGRAM

Seeking Counseling Interns and Trainees interested in expanding mental health and wellness supports in Sonoma County schools

The SCOE Behavioral Health Department strives to improve mental health, wellbeing, and educational outcomes for all students, families, and staff in Sonoma County.

The Field Education Program welcomes yearly cohorts of up to eight Interns/Trainees pursuing a MSW, MFT, LPCC, and/or PPSC.

Structure:

Site Placement Based on a collaborative process, interns/trainees are matched with a local K-12 school site.

Supervision Weekly Group and Individual Clinical Supervision provided by SCOE Behavioral Health Coordinators. Site Supervision provided by a designated counselor or admin at each placement site.

Opportunity:

Experience Individual and group counseling, case management, classroom-based SEL, community and restorative circles/restorative practices, teacher/staff consultation, crisis response, and more.

Benefits Stipends, ongoing training opportunities, cohort model, expansive school-based and County Office of Education experience, onboarding costs covered.

Contact: Send resumes and cover letters to Shauna Hamilton, LMFT, PPSC (she/her) shamilton@scoe.org & Wendy Worms, LCSW, PPSC (she/her) wworms@scoe.org
