SPORTS

GIRLS JV/VARSITY BASKETBALL: You have a game tonight at home against North Clarion. Tip-off is at 6:00 pm.

Good Luck KC!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS WHO HAD PHYSICAL EDUCATION DURING THE FIRST SEMESTER: There is currently an abundance of clothes and shoes left unattended in the physical education locker rooms. If you have misplaced any items this semester, please come claim them. Any unclaimed items at the end of the semester will be either donated or thrown away. Also, students who rented a gym lock can turn it in to the office to receive your $5 deposit back.

ATTENTION ALL 9TH GRADERS: The students of Mrs. Liput's 4th period Career Readiness class are asking you to bring in cans of food to support our "Don't IGNORE This Can of Worms" project. From Monday, January 13th through Thursday, January 16th, 9th grade homerooms will be collecting cans to be donated to the Salvation Army to go to those in need. Each homeroom will have a box for your UNEXPIRED cans. Any cans that are expired cannot be counted. The winning homeroom will be given assorted donuts and drinks during a homeroom party. Winners will be announced Friday, January 17th. So please, "Don't Ignore This Can of Worms."

ATTENTION ALL JUNIORS: If you are interested in attending the National College Fair in Pittsburgh on January 28th, please return your permission form to the guidance office by January 21st. Thank you.

ATTENTION STUDENTS AND STAFF: The following students are competed and placed in the Elementary/Middle Division Presidents at SRU last week:

Individuals in the Middle Division grades 7-8: Undefeated are Zac Neal, Maverick Haug, Peyton Patsy, and Andrew Serafine.

In team play: KC placed first. That team was made up of Zac Neal, Maverick Haug, Peyton Patsy, Sophia Smith, and Andrew Serafine.

Congratulations to all those who participated. You make KC proud!
