

Early College CCMR Leadership Roundtable 2024-2025

The Early College CCMR Leadership Roundtable aligns efforts on enhancing College, Career, and Military Readiness (CCMR) within the early college program. The meeting is designed to be a collaborative forum where all participants can contribute to shaping the future of the early college program, ensuring that all students are equipped to succeed in their chosen paths.

The focus of the Early College CCMR Leadership Roundtable is to enhance College, Career, and Military Readiness (CCMR) within the early college program. The meeting aims to:

1. Assess Current CCMR Outcomes: Review and analyze data on student performance, dual credit completion, college enrollment, and other key indicators of CCMR success.
2. Identify Gaps and Challenges: Discuss challenges faced by students in meeting CCMR benchmarks, particularly focusing on underserved populations and areas where additional support is needed.
3. Set Actionable Goals: Establish clear, measurable goals for improving CCMR outcomes and create a timeline for implementing and assessing these strategies
4. Develop Strategic Initiatives: Brainstorm and plan new initiatives or programs that can better prepare students for college, careers, and military service, ensuring they meet or exceed CCMR expectations.
5. Foster Leadership Development: Focus on ways to empower students through leadership opportunities within the program, helping them take active roles in shaping their educational and career trajectories.
6. Strengthen Partnerships: Explore opportunities to deepen collaborations with South Texas College, businesses, and military organizations to provide students with diverse and meaningful post-secondary pathways.
