Visit from Philaport

Representatives from the Port of Philadelphia visited the Elementary school and gave a presentation on how the port works to our elementary school. They also donated and delivered much-needed school supplies! A big thank you to Port of Philadelphia!

Temple University Creative Scholars!

MACS scholars Kasey Sanderson, Amaya Hernandez, Camilla Gao, and Janae Williams were accepted to the Temple University Creative Scholars Program this year!

Cadets wrote essays, collected letters of recommendation, and submitted examples of their artwork.

Our students will participate in a yearlong, full-scholarship, art- intensive program, featuring studio courses, artist visits, and workshops with leading cultural institutions.

This program deepens their skills and prepares portfolios for admission to top art, architecture, and design schools.
