

Liberty Common High School College Planning Information for Juniors

START PLANNING

- Create an email address you will use for colleges and communication.
- Plan to visit at least 4-6 college campuses this school year.
- Create your PSAT, ACT, and/or SAT testing timeline.
- Focus on grades and maintain rigor in courses – Grades matter!
- Document everything you are involved in: clubs, sports, volunteering, and work. Consider leadership roles, summer programs, or opportunities to help you explore your interests.
- Explore and learn about various colleges - attend fairs and high school visits.

ACT and SAT TESTING

- Prepare for and take the PSAT/NMSQT in October.
- Your PSAT score will help you determine if the SAT or ACT is a better-fit test. You may qualify for the NMSQT scholarship.
- Create your Khan Academy account and practice online at www.khanacademy.org
- Register for SAT www.collegeboard.org Register for ACT www.act.org
- All colleges take both test scores. Some colleges are test optional <https://fairtest.org/>

NCAA/MILITARY

- If you are considering participating in Division I or II athletics, be sure to review NCAA requirements and register with NCAA <https://web3.ncaa.org/ecwr3/>
- If you plan to apply to a military academy, meet with Mr. Schaffer to develop your strategy and get the names of recruiters to help with the appointment process.
