

WELCOME TO THE A.M. BARBE HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

2024 - 25

Barbe High School Library Media Center's mission statement is to provide lifelong learning skills that support curriculum, professional and individual needs of our students, faculty, and staff.

LIBRARIAN: K. Little LIBRARIAN: K. Cholley CLERK: N. Chehotsky

Monday – Friday 7:15 AM – 3:30 PM

Open Access –
The library's open access policy allows students to access the library while scheduled classes are conducting research. Each student must have a teacher's hall pass if using the library during an assigned teacher's class period.

Books –
Books may be checked out for 2 weeks. Students with overdue books are charged 25 cents for every school day the book is overdue. Report cards are held for fines not paid. Students are encouraged to renew books to avoid fines.

Databases –
Explore: Discovery Education, Gale, Teaching Books, World Book Online… The wealth of information is endless!

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) –
In keeping with procedures established by our school system, students must have a signed AUP by a parent or guardian, in order to use any CPSB computer.

Computer Accounts –
Once you have turned in your signed AUP, the librarians can assist you in creating a computer account if you are new to the Calcasieu Parish School System.

Peterson's Test Prep

See Ms. Little or Ms. Cholley if you would like to set up an account. It is never too early to begin practicing for the ACT and AP.

Laptop Trouble Shooting –
See Ms. Little or Ms. Cholley is you are having issues with your laptop. The library also provides charging stations for students to use before school, lunch and after school.
