

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

2024-2025

In support of strengthening student achievement, Northwoods Park Middle School receives Title I Part A funds and therefore must jointly develop, agree on with, and distribute parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy that contain information required by section 1116(b) and (c) of Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The policy establishes the school's expectations for parents and family engagement and describes how the school will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities, and it is incorporated into the school's plan submitted to the local educational agency (LEA).

Northwoods Park Middle School agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by Section 1116:

- Involve families, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the school improvement plan under Section 1114(b) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).
- Update the school parent and family engagement policy periodically to meet the changing needs of families and the school, distribute it to the families of participating children, and make the parent and family engagement policy available to the local community.
- Provide full opportunities, to the extent practicable, for the participation of families with limited English proficiency, families with disabilities, and families of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language families understand.

- If the school improvement plan under Section 1114(b) of the ESSA is not satisfactory to the families of participating children, submit any family comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency.
- Be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition: Parent and Family Engagement means the participation of families in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:
 - (A) families play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
 - (B) families are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
 - (C) families are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
 - (D) other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116 of the ESSA.

Description of how the school will implement required school parent and family engagement policy components:

JOINTLY DEVELOPED

Northwoods Park Middle School will take the following actions to involve families in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including opportunities for regular meetings, if requested by families, to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

Families will be involved in the development of Northwoods Park Middle School's parent and family engagement policy by:

- inclusion on Northwoods Park Middle's Strategic Planning Team (SPT).
- inclusion on Northwoods Park Middle's Parent Advisory Council (PAC).
- representing Northwoods Park Middle on Onslow County's District Parent Advisory Council (DPAC).
- providing Fall and Spring Parent Surveys.
-

ANNUAL TITLE I MEETING

Northwoods Park Middle School will take the following actions to conduct an annual meeting, at a convenient time, and encourage and invite all families of participating children to attend to inform them about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program, the families' requirements, the school parent and family engagement policy, the schoolwide plan, and the school-parent compact. Northwoods Park Middle School will hold an annual meeting during the fall Open House to:

- inform parents and families about the school's facilities and its Title I Schoolwide designation.
- inform families of the requirements of Title I and Northwoods Park Middle's participation
- provide parents/families with information regarding upcoming opportunities to participate in school and district events.
- inform parents of Northwoods Park Middle's iReady Reading and Math programs, as well as provide sample instructional materials for parents to view.
- distribute Middle Years Family Newsletter.
- a video with the information shared at the annual meeting will be posted on Northwoods Park Middle's website for parents who were unable to attend the face-to-face event.

COMMUNICATIONS

Northwoods Park Middle will take the following actions to provide to families of participating children:

- timely information about the Title I programs.
- meetings that may provide information about Title I funds, transportation (Mastery Monday), and services related to parent and family engagement.
- information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the families of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language the families can understand.
- parents will receive a paper copy of Northwoods Park Middle's Parent and Family Engagement Policy. A link to the document will be provided on our school's website.
- monthly Newsletters, social media, and the all-call system will be utilized to inform families of upcoming events, meetings, and programs.

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

Northwoods Park Middle will take the following actions to jointly develop with families of participating children a school-parent compact that outlines how families, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and families will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.

- Northwoods Park Middle will revise and vote on the school's Parent/Student/Teacher compact annually in conjunction with our spring strategic planning meeting.

COORDINATING AND INTEGRATING PARENT INVOLVEMENT

Northwoods Park Middle coordinates our programs and activities with the following staff and programs to support parent and family participation in the education of their children to include those with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) and families of Students with Disabilities (SWD):

- all parents will be invited to participate on school committees.
- Exceptional Children's department utilizes the services of interpreters (Language Line Solutions) for communication with parents to include translation at IEP meetings.
- parent communication to English Language Learners will be provided in a format, and to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand. In addition, Northwoods Park Middle will assist in successful transitions by coordinating with the following staff and programs:
 - English Language Learners, English language tutors, and district leaders
 - Public elementary and high school feeder schools
 - School nurse, counselor, social worker, and Military Family Life Counselor

RESERVATION OF FUNDS

If applicable, Northwoods Park Middle will take the following actions to involve the families of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the one percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent by:

- sharing/approving the budget decisions through the Strategic Planning Team.
- asking parents to provide input for workshops through a fall Title I Parent Information Survey and as members of the Strategic Planning Team.

COORDINATION OF SERVICES

Northwoods Park Middle will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support families in more fully participating in the education of their children by:

- notifying parents and families of assistance from outside agencies such as: food banks, United Way, church programs for assistance, recreation/sports opportunities, Boy and Girl Scouts, Onslow County Public Library, Christmas Cheer, Salvation Army, Jacksonville Rotary, and Onslow County Toy Drive.
- inviting participation by adults from the community into school assemblies and programs such as Gentlemen of Quality, Beta Club, FCA, and 8th grade community projects.
- enabling distribution of food donated by local churches, businesses, and the CHEW! Program.
- accessing services as needed through PRIDE, Onslow County Partnership for Children, Stride, and Heart and Sole (YMCA).

BUILDING CAPACITY OF SCHOOL STAFF

Northwoods Park Middle will provide training to educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of families, in the value and utility of contributions of families, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with families as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between families and the school by:

- sending quarterly grade level newsletters.
- providing literature and pamphlets to help families work with their children at home.
- providing professional development on strengthening the inclusion classroom
- Collaborating with our feeder highschool to hold a Parent Night for Rising High School Freshmen.
- Hold a Rising 6th Grade parent night for our 5th grade students in May to help bridge the gap between elementary and middle school
- Northwoods Park Middle will provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities under Section 1116 as families may request by:
- offering parent and family engagement activities at flexible times.
- encouraging parents and families to attend other school events, conferences, and observe in the Title I Program