

ICA Cristo Rey Academy (ICA) is a Dominican Catholic college preparatory school that empowers girls from underserved communities to become confident young women able to realize their full potential. By providing an excellent academic curriculum, a unique corporate work study experience, and the support of our spiritual community, we prepare students for lives of faith, purpose, and service.

Job Details:

Title: Math Teacher

Term: 2025 - 2026 academic year

Reports to: Principal

Location: San Francisco

Position Type: Full-time, Exempt, 10 month (August - May)

Salary Range: $65,000 - $110,00 commensurate with experience

Position Summary:

The Math teacher will join a highly collaborative, innovative, and experienced STEM division. The ideal candidate should have a demonstrated interest in high school education, enthusiasm for teaching college and career ready skills, and the ability to communicate effectively and appropriately with adolescent girls. The purpose of a Math teacher is to foster critical thinkers and problem solvers by designing robust, interactive lessons and assessments that center student agency, identity, and academic development.

Responsibilities:

Primary duties consist of but are not limited to the following:

- Teach five sections of grades 9 - 12, designing lessons, projects, and assessments that foster active learning
- Plan instruction to meet the needs of a wide range of learners, at various levels of intellectual and social development
- Cultivate a positive, challenging, and equitable learning environment that reflects ICA's mission and allows the diverse student body to grow and thrive
- Foster the practice of anti-racist, anti-bias education, multicultural teaching, and culturally responsive pedagogy
- Work closely with the Dean of Curriculum & Instruction, the Division Chair, and colleagues to develop engaging and meaningful curricula with vertical and horizontal alignment
- Provide academic support for students outside of class time - conduct office hours, answer homework questions, communicate via email, etc.
- Coordinate with Deans, Director of Guidance, colleagues and/or parents/guardians as needed to support individual student performance
- Productively engage in all faculty meetings, division meetings, and collaborative team meetings
- Participate in student life by chaperoning events, attending athletic games/meets, moderating student clubs, and/or serving on school committees
- Maintain student safety by supervising study halls and break/lunch periods, provide substitute coverage, and other assignments as needed
- Participate in admissions and enrollment events, HR-related training, and other duties as assigned by the Principal to advance the ICA mission and vision

Standards:

ICA's ambitious mission necessitates high expectations of its faculty, both in their individual and community presence, thus ICA seeks and expects the following:

- Authentic resonance with ICA's mission as a Catholic school for students of all faiths, including a commitment to girls' education and the Dominican pillars of Community, Study, Service, and Prayer
- Intentional and constructive contributions to the ICA team, recognizing the unique value, perspectives, strengths, and challenges of every member of the community
- A growth mindset and high levels of self/social awareness, self-management, empathy, and curiosity
- Positive collaboration skills, including integrity, humility, and the ability to build/maintain authentic and trusting relationships
- Exceptional ability to articulate thoughts and express ideas effectively using oral, written, visual, and nonverbal communication skills, as well as deep listening skills to gain understanding
- Professional practices of attention to detail, punctuality, efficiency, and organization

Qualifications:

Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to ongoing professional growth. In addition, they will meet or exceed the following requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in subject area; an advanced degree and/or teaching credentials are preferred
- Strong knowledge of the academic, socio-emotional, and life skills necessary for college readiness
- Experience working with and a deep appreciation of adolescents
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging work
- Ability to use and effectively employ technology to promote efficiency, communication, and organization both in the classroom and workplace
- Physical demands
 - Able to lift up to 20 pounds, climb stairs, and work at desk and computer for extended periods
 - Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision, distance vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus
- Preferred bilingual or multilingual skills
