MEDIA RELEASE

Superintendent Search Process Update

The Fresno Unified Board of Education would like to provide an updated timeline, including key dates, regarding the search process for a permanent superintendent. All aspects of the search process are guided by the board of education's intentional work in Student Outcomes Focused Governance (SOFG). More information regarding this broader work can be found at this webpage.

Key tentative dates for the hiring of a new superintendent are as follows:

- Jan. 17, 2025: Review concludes of requests for proposals for a firm to conduct the superintendent search
- Feb. 12, 2025: Search firm finalists are presented to the board of education
- Feb. 26, 2025: A contract for a search firm is presented to the board for approval
- March 2025: The superintendent position is posted
- April 2-3, 2025: The board reviews candidates
- April 9, 2025: The board votes on a superintendent finalist
- April 23, 2025: A contract for the new superintendent is presented to the board

The Board of Education will proactively provide updates to the media and community at each milestone.
