APPROVED MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING

December 17, 2024
REGULAR BOARD MEETING

1. Call to Order

President Lawson called the Regular Meeting to order at 7:01 p.m.

1.1 Roll Call

Present at the Regular Board meeting: President Janet Lawson, Vice-President Mike Wells; Trustees Alisa MacAvoy, David Weekly, and Cecilia Márquez; and Superintendent Baker

Others present during the Regular Board meeting: Trustee-elects David Li and Jennifer Ng Kwing King; CBO Rick Edson, Assistant Superintendent Anna Herrera, Deputy Superintendent Wendy Kelly, Jenny Tran (remote), Jorge Quintana, Gonzalo Cordova, and many others.

2. Welcome

President Lawson welcomed those present.

Superintendent Baker commended Trustee Alisa MacAvoy and President Janet Lawson for their dedication and many years of service to the Redwood City School District. Their shared contributions have strengthened the district and ensured students have access to exceptional opportunities no matter the challenges.

Speaker's Cards:

Dennis McBride thanked President Lawson for her nine years of dedicated service to the Redwood City School District. He highlighted her experience as a school board member, commended her advocacy efforts, and praised her integrity.

Mario Rendon, a representative from Congressman Kevin Mullin's office, highlighted the importance of public service and commended Janet Lawson for her perseverance and dedication as a board trustee.

Joan Dentler, representing California State Senator Josh Becker and Assemblymembers Diane Papan and Marc Berman, presented President Lawson with a resolution recognizing her dedication and service as a member of the RCSD School Board of Trustees. Dentler also noted that Trustee MacAvoy had previously received a resolution at an earlier celebration but took the opportunity to speak and commend both trustees for their service.

Lori McBride praised Trustee Alisa MacAvoy, emphasizing her outstanding qualities and extensive community involvement through volunteer work and various organizations.

Mario Rendon expressed gratitude to Trustee MacAvoy for her service and presented her with a Congressional Record dated December 22, 2024.

Dennis McBride commended Trustee MacAvoy for her 17 years of dedicated service as a Board Trustee. He also expressed gratitude to her family for their unwavering support, which enabled her to continue making significant contributions to the community.

Marissa MacAvoy, Trustee MacAvoy's daughter, shared her pride and described Trustee MacAvoy as an incredible mom, school board member, and person.

President Lawson reflected on her journey and involvement with the district that ultimately led her to become a Trustee. She expressed gratitude to her husband, mother, and sons for their support throughout her tenure. Additionally, she commended the Board, Superintendent Baker, and all RCSD staff for their contributions.

Trustee MacAvoy expressed her deep appreciation for all the support she has received. She gave a heartfelt acknowledgment to her late father for his involvement in the community and shared that her mother had been both a school volunteer and a school board member. Emphasizing that education is the most important priority, she thanked the current Board, Superintendent Baker, staff, and community and warmly welcomed the new school board members.

Vice President Wells, along with the Board of Trustees, presented President Lawson with a token of appreciation in recognition of her leadership.

3. Oath of Office

Re-elected Trustee Mike Wells, along with Trustee-Elects David Li and Jennifer Ng Kwing King, were sworn into office by taking their Oaths of Office.

9. School/Community Reports

9.1 Report on Local Indicator Measurement for the California Dashboard

Assistant Superintendent Anna Herrera and Jenny Tran, Coordinator of Data Analysis & Accountability, provided the School Board with a report on the district's academic performance as reflected in the California Dashboard. This tool evaluates how local educational agencies (LEAs) and schools address student needs as part of the state's accountability system. It highlights performance on state and local measures, enabling districts to identify strengths, challenges, and areas for improvement. The data presented showcased RCSD's progress in English Learner performance, reductions in chronic absenteeism and suspension rates, performance in English Language Arts and Mathematics, and outlined strategies for continued academic growth.

The School Board asked clarifying questions and made comments regarding the data presented. No action was taken.
