Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that we are on the indigenous lands of the Coast Salish peoples who include the Duwamish (dxʷdəwʔabš) Tribe, Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, and the Snoqualmie sdukʷalbixʷ Tribe.

We thank these caretakers of this land who have lived and continue to live here since time immemorial. We reflect on the historic context that brings us to reside on this land and accept responsibility to interrupt erasure. We are committed to our ongoing partnership with the Snoqualmie Tribe as we listen to, learn from, and lead with their guidance.

General Updates

- Board Report Recap
- Design Subcommittee Updates
- Marketing Subcommittee
- Family Resource Center Subcommittee

Review Belonging Bridges

In groups of 3, we will take a gallery walk of the room of our "Belonging Bridges". These bridges were collaboratively created during our 12/13 training with Dr. OH.

What do you notice? What themes to do you see?

Envisioning Visitor's Experience: Scenario Practice

Using the scenarios that were developed by our design team we are going to practice ensuring that human-centered systems and relationships are the heart of the Welcome Center.

Review Scenario
Is any additional information needed?
What needs to be considered when supporting this individual/family?
How would we support this individual/family during their visit to the Welcome Center?

Human- Centered Systems and Relationships

Optimistic Closure

- How are you leaving our meeting this afternoon feeling?
