Course Commitment

Student course selections determine how the school master schedule is built, how faculty is hired and how room assignments are made. Your course selections are your commitment to the courses.

PISD Course Selection Policy

Starting the first day of school, a schedule change will only be considered based on following criteria:

- Student is a senior not scheduled in a course needed for graduation
- Student has already earned credit for a currently scheduled course
- Student does not meet the prerequisite requirements for a course
- Student has previously failed the class under the same teacher
- Student was dismissed from a program where approval must be granted
