Discussion Item: Strategic Plan Monitoring Update

A. Mrs. Alhadeff informed the council that the strategic plan was approved by Fulton County Schools. The students are currently taking iReady mid-year diagnostics and we will have a good idea of progress in the coming weeks.

Informational Item: Superintendent Advisory Council Update

A. Information was shared about improving leadership within the school board system. As people are retiring the district would like to see people able to roll up from the staff. Additionally, software has been rolled out to monitor students digital consumption specifically for bullying, bad sites, and self-harm. The next meeting is in January.

Informational Item: Hootie's Holiday Feast Update

A. Over 400 people came through and so many families were able to get jackets, toys, and pantry items. Home Church was also able to get many new family's information to increase future communication about FOR days. The outreach committee set up a table with attendance information and a survey to gather more information about attendance. Each family that filled out the survey received a bag of candy and a free frosty or taco mac kids' meal that was donated from our parent liaison. The bags helped bring families to the table and we had 45 responses. More data will be shared next meeting.

Informational Item: Principal's Update

- A. Mrs. Alhadeff reported that the CCRPI was released. Unit assessments are coming in all grades. Winter Wonderland, class parties, and polar express for k will be happening next week.

Discussion Item: Draft Next Meeting Agenda and Set Spring Committee Meeting Date

- A. The next meeting will be on January 16th at 2:45 pm at Vickery Mill Elementary. The committee will follow up about design thinking, attendance survey, principal's update, plan for elections.
