“Writing Our Stories: A Black History Conversation with JASON REYNOLDS”

Wednesday, February 5, 2025 | 7 p.m.
Crimi Auditorium in the Institute for Collaboration

Join us for an unforgettable evening in honor of Black History Month with Jason Reynolds, a #1 New York Times bestselling author celebrated for his novels and poetry that resonate with young adults and youth.

Jason's work masterfully captures the rich inner lives of kids of color, ensuring they see their stories and communities reflected in literature. Whether through verse, prose, a superhero novel, or a fusion of art and text, his powerful and moving examinations of modern society are innovative, captivating, and widely admired.
