

Chief Technology Officer

Duties and Authority

The Chief Technology Officer (CTO) is accountable for defining and delivering IT strategy and capabilities across the enterprise. This includes data analytics, development and support, infrastructure, security, technical services and large scale project development and execution is selection of and implementation of critical software systems. The CTO serves as the District's Data Privacy Officer, fulfilling those responsibilities outlined in Board policy 7.345, Use of Educational Technologies; Student Data Privacy and Security. The selected leader will be responsible for providing oversight and direction to IT and educational leaders on strategy, standards, and opportunities for shared services and economies of scale. It is critical for the CTO to build strong and productive relationships with all building leaders, acting as a true partner and making IT an educational partner.

Administrative Relationship

The CTO is employed by the Board of Education and reports to the Assistant Superintendent for Learning Resources.

Qualifications

The CTO must have experience and skills in managing and supervising the information technology aspects of an organization, preferably in the education field. The CTO must have a bachelor's degree in information technology or a related field, and preferably an advanced degree or certification in a related field such as computer science, engineering, and/or business (MBA).

Evaluation

The Assistant Superintendent for Learning Resources shall annually evaluate the CTO and make employment and salary recommendations to the Superintendent.

Compensation and Benefits

The Board of Education and the CTO shall enter into an employment agreement that conforms to Board policy and State law. The Board will consider the Superintendent's recommendations when setting compensation for the CTO. These recommendations will be presented to the Board no later than the June Board meeting.

Terms of Employment

The work year for the CTO shall be the same as the District's fiscal year, July 1 through June 30. In addition to legal holidays, the CTO shall have vacation periods as approved by the Superintendent.

Adopted: 10/17/22

Revised: 06/03/24