The organization meeting shall be a regular meeting.[1][2][3][4]

Order

The organization meeting shall be called to order by the current President or Vice-President of the outgoing Board, or any hold-over member of the Board. A temporary President shall be elected from among the hold-over members of the Board. The Board Secretary shall be secretary of the meeting. In an election year, the certificates of election or appointment of all new school directors shall be read, and a list shall be prepared of the legally elected or appointed and qualified school directors. [2][5]

At the organization meeting, the temporary President may administer the oath or affirmation of office to those school directors who have not previously taken and subscribed to the same. [2][6]

Officers

Election of officers shall be by a majority vote of those present and voting. Where no such majority is achieved on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be cast for the two (2) candidates who received the greatest number of votes.

1. The school directors shall annually, during the first week of December, elect from their members a President and Vice-President who shall serve for one (1) year. [3]
2. The school directors shall annually, during the month of May, elect a Treasurer who shall serve for one (1) year beginning the first day of July after such election. The Treasurer may be a corporation duly qualified and legally authorized to transact a fiduciary business in the Commonwealth, and may be a member of the Board. [3]

The Treasurer shall not enter upon official duties until furnishing bond in accordance with law and with Board approval. The Treasurer shall be compensated in the manner and at the rate determined by the Board. [7][8][9]

3. The school directors shall, during the month of May in every fourth year, elect a Secretary who shall serve a term of four (4) years beginning the first day of July following such election, and may be a member of the Board.[3]

The Secretary shall not enter upon official duties until furnishing bond in accordance with law and with Board approval. The Secretary shall be compensated in the manner and at the rate determined by the Board.[9][10][11]

Vacancies in any office shall be filled by Board election; such officers shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The same school director may not hold more than one (1) office of the Board. No commissioned officer or professional employee of the Board shall serve, temporarily or permanently, as an officer of the Board.[3][12]

Officers of the Board may only be removed from such office, during the designated term of office, after receiving notification of the reason for removal and the opportunity for a hearing before the Board, in accordance with applicable law.[13][14][15]

Appointments

The Board shall have the authority to appoint:

1. A tax collector, where a tax collector is not elected to collect taxes, there is a vacancy or an elected tax collector refuses to qualify.[16][17]
2. Solicitor.[12][18]
3. Assistant Secretary.[19]
4. Independent auditor.[20]
5. Delegates to a state convention or association of school directors.[21]
6. Other appointments the Board deems necessary.

Appointees of the Board may be removed from such appointment in accordance with the terms of a contract or provisions of applicable law.[15]

2. Newspaper(s) of general circulation as defined in law.[23]
3. Normal day, place and time for regular meetings.[4]
4. Normal day, place and time for open committee meetings.

Board Committees

The board strives to maximize the involvement of all of its members in the study and discussion of district matters and concerns. As such, a committee of the whole will meet following or during the board study session to discuss, consider or act upon district matters.

In addition to the committee of the whole, the board reserves the right to establish sub-committees or ad hoc committees as needed

When specifically charged to do so by the Board, ad hoc and sub-committees of Board members shall conduct studies, make recommendations, and act in an advisory capacity, but shall not take action on behalf of the Board.

With the exception of the Committee of the Whole, ad hoc and/or sub-committees shall not include a majority of the membership of the Board.

A member may request or refuse appointment to serve on an ad hoc or sub- committee.

Refusal to serve on any one committee shall not be grounds for failure to appoint a member to another committee.

Each Board ad hoc and sub-committee shall be convened by a chairperson, who shall report for the committee, prepare minutes of open committee meetings, and be appointed by the President.

Ad hoc committees may be created, charged, and assigned a fixed termination date, which may be extended by the President.

Members of committees shall serve until the committee is discharged.

Consultants

The Board may appoint, employ or retain consultants to provide the district with specialized services not normally required on a continuing basis. Compensation shall be determined and approved by the Board.

The function of a consultant shall be to make studies and present recommendations to the Board. A consultant shall not be charged with the implementation of a report.

A consultant has no administrative authority over any facet of district schools, but shall act solely as advisor to the Board, officers and employees.

The use of consultants from outside the district who promote a particular commercial product is discouraged.
