Immigration Rights FAQ

In our community of 2,400 students, we are dedicated to ensuring schools remain safe, inclusive spaces for every student where race, ethnicity, religion, or immigration status do not hinder education. Acknowledging families' concerns about immigration, we are providing information to support our commitment to preventing discrimination and harassment.

Frequently Asked Questions on Immigration

If you have a question that is not answered below, please reach out to the Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Education (CLDE) Department at 303-806-2006. It is important to note this information was last updated on 1-21-25.

Does Englewood Schools ask for a child's immigration status when he or she enrolls?

No. The Englewood School District never asks for immigration status at any time. Englewood School District has an obligation to enroll students regardless of their immigration status and without discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin.

What impact does undocumented immigration status have on my child's education?

None. Our school district does not know the immigration status of any student or parent. In Colorado, children have a constitutional right to have equal access to education regardless of their immigration status or their parents' status.

Do we know whether there will be any immigration enforcement actions on school grounds?

Recently, the federal government repealed the guidance that limited federal immigration arrests near sensitive locations, including schools. We are waiting for additional information regarding this new change.

If I am a parent or guardian and I am worried about being detained while my child is at school, what should I do?

In the event that any parents are detained during school hours, please make sure to have your emergency contacts updated. The District will partner with your emergency contact to ensure the safety of your student(s). Please take this opportunity to update your emergency contact information for your students either at your school or in the Infinite Campus Parent Portal.

What about if I am a DACA recipient?

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) is based on an order by the president. If you are a recipient of DACA, consider reaching out to an immigration attorney now in order to determine if you have access to a better form of immigration status. Additional information can be found here.

What should I do if I want to understand my immigration rights?

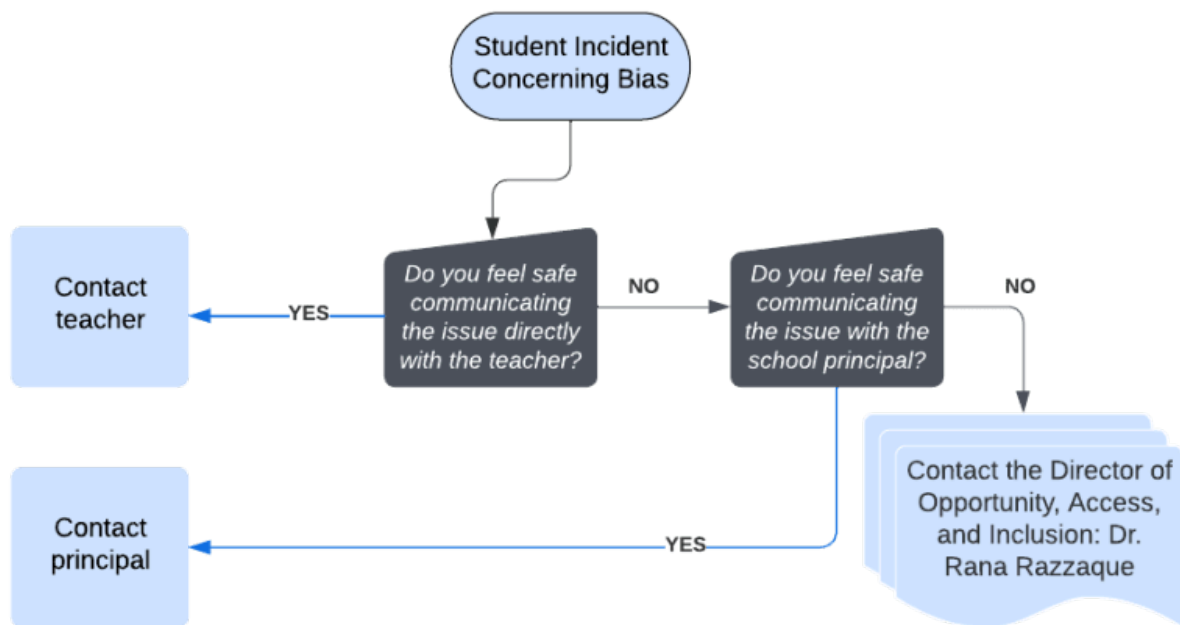

Only immigration attorneys can provide you with accurate advice about immigration status and how you can pursue any legal rights you might have. For your own protection, please do not seek the advice of notarios or others who are not licensed immigration attorneys. A list of available resources can be found here. (Updated 12-10-24)

What does the Englewood School District do to ensure that no student or family is discriminated against or harassed because of their race, ethnicity, religion or national origin?

Englewood Schools prioritizes equity as a core value, with policies prohibiting discrimination or harassment based on race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, and other protected classes. We are dedicated to creating a safe, inclusive, and engaging environment for everyone in our community;

What should I do if I feel like my student or I have been the victim of discrimination or harassment?

Please report the behavior immediately to a school leader or to the Director of Opportunity, Access, and Inclusion. Complaints and concerns are taken seriously and are responded with immediate attention. We take these complaints very seriously to assure that our schools continue to be safe spaces. Please follow the flowchart to guide your next steps in the process.
