

02.

February 2025

Read-aloud Challenge 2025

Ways to Engage
Read aloud each day of the month.
Encourage parents to read aloud at home.
Invite parents or mystery readers to read aloud to students.
Create reading response activities for stories read.
Share the Experience
Post pictures or short videos of read-alouds on social media .
Use this hashtag: #LitLoveRead
Use this hashtag: #LitLoveReadMetro
Other Literacy Resources
https://www.mresa.org/resourcescontent-areas/lets-read-georgia

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
2	3 Character Voices Day: Read a story using different voices for each character.	4 Mystery Book Day: Wrap the book in paper and reveal it just before reading.	5 Poetry Day: Read a collection of poems and discuss the imagery and emotions.	6 Interactive Story Day: Choose a book that allows students to participate by repeating phrases or making sound effects.	7 Favorite Author Day: Read a book by a popular author and share fun facts about them.	8
9	10 Picture Book Day: Read a picture book and encourage students to describe the illustrations.	11 Classic Tales Day: Read a classic fairy tale or fable and discuss its moral.	12 Student Choice Day: Let students vote on which book to read.	13 Adventure Day: Read an adventure story and have students predict what will happen next.	14 Seasonal Stories Day: Read a story related to the current season or holiday.	15
16	17- President's Day	18 Historical Fiction Day: Read a historical fiction book and discuss the historical context.	19 Science Fiction Day: Read a science fiction story and explore the imaginative elements.	20 Funny Story Day: Choose a humorous book and enjoy the laughter together.	21 Cultural Stories Day: Read a story from a different culture and discuss its traditions.	22
23	24 Mystery Day: Read a mystery book and have students guess the ending.	25 Animal Stories Day: Choose a book about animals and discuss their characteristics.	26 Fantasy Day: Read a fantasy story and talk about the magical elements.	27 Non-Fiction Day: Read a non-fiction book and discuss the facts presented.	28 Create Your Own Ending Day: Read a story and stop before the ending, then have students create their own endings.	