Shout Outs

STUDENTS

Addi & Antonio ALWAYS give 110% effort to the Student News section of the MES Newsletter. They are the first to turn in their writings, complete the task with a smile, & show true dedication to their commitment. WAY to go, kiddos! YOU ROCK!!

STAFF

Thanks to the cafeteria staff for showing GREAT flexibility managing our breakfasts & lunches with the weather delays & changes. You're the BEST!!

COMMUNITY

The classroom doors are taking on a new look for the coming months. A special thanks to all of the "room parents" that spend time creating FABULOUS entryways into our classrooms!!!

Student News

Would you rather be loved or respected and why?

I would choose to be loved and respected. I want to be loved by my family and respected by friends and people I know.

~ By AS

I would rather be respected. If I was loved, everyone would run up to me and hug me. If I'm respected, they would wave at me like a friend.

~ By AA

DI Teams

Destination Imagination

We are excited to introduce our two competing teams for DI this year. We have the Creative Little Candy Corns and the Creative Comets. Our coaches are Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Junkin, and Mrs. McNatt. They will be competing on February 8th @ Waxahachie High School.

Capturing Kids Hearts

January Character Trait: Respect

Respect is giving honor and value to ourselves and others.
