A note from the principal:

Dear Bulldog Family,

As we embrace the beauty and joy of the fall season, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of you. It is an honor and a privilege to work with your children—our students, your most precious gifts. They fill our halls with energy, curiosity, and endless potential, and they inspire me every single day.

I am deeply thankful for the trust you have placed in me and in this campus. Entrusting us with the important task of educating your children and ensuring their safety is a responsibility I take very seriously. Your confidence motivates our team to give our very best, fostering a supportive and nurturing environment where every student can thrive. The fall season is a time for reflection and togetherness, and I want to share how much joy it brings me to see our Bulldog Family united in purpose and commitment. From the classroom to the sidelines, from performances to parent conferences, your involvement and partnership make all the difference in the success of our students.

As we approach Thanksgiving, my wish for each of you is a safe, relaxing, and joyful break. May this time be filled with warmth, laughter, and the making of wonderful memories with loved ones.

Thank you for allowing me to be a part of this incredible journey with your children. Together, we are building not only strong learners but also strong, caring individuals who will make a difference in the world.

Happy Thanksgiving!

With gratitude and Bulldog pride,

David Coker

Principal
