Attn: Counselor's Office

On behalf of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Galveston Alumnae Chapter, thank you for allowing us to extend our scholarship to your students. Enclosed are applications for the "Jessie McGuire Dent Scholarship," awarded annually by our chapter to support the college endeavors of local students.

Jessie McGuire Dent was a native of Galveston, Texas and one of the founders of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. in 1913. Delta Sigma Theta is an international, public service sorority comprised of college-educated women. Our chapter honors Founder Jessie McGuire Dent by providing cash awards for educational accomplishments and community involvement to one student from either Ball High School, Hitchcock High School, Dickinson High School, and O' Connell Preparatory. The recipient will use the scholarship for college-related financial needs in Fall 2025 or Spring 2026. Applicants are in a pool of students, and all schools may not have a recipient chosen. The form has our chapter representative's contact information. All completed applications need to be typed, printed, signed, and received by March 28, 2025. Please stress this to the applicants. NOTE: The application can now be completed online (see attached).
