See you around...

Hello Phoenixes! My name is Janet Hernandez Vargas, a senior here at MCEC, and I have been the "The Phoenixes' Call" Newsletter editor for this past fall semester. Without a doubt I would say that it has been a really interesting school year thus far. However, we still need to maintain a positive spirit to finish out the year strong. Having the chance to be editor once again has been an amazing journey. This journey would not be complete without the help of the journalism team and everyone who has contributed to the newsletter. I would like to give a huge thanks to everyone who has helped bring our newsletters to life. I hope to see you all around soon! I wish you all a safe and happy holiday season!

Sincerely, Janet Hernandez Vargas
