Woolwich Twp. – The Kingsway Regional School District is thrilled to announce Nick Rothwein’s appointment as the new Head Girls' Lacrosse Coach where he was appointed at the January 23rd Board of Education meeting.

Nick was appointed at the January Board of Education meeting, and Superintendent James Lavender shared the exciting news, stating, “We are thrilled to see Nick Rothwein step into this leadership role. His deep understanding of our program, experience as both a player and coach and unwavering commitment to our student-athletes make him the ideal choice to lead the girls’ lacrosse team. We look forward to seeing him build upon the strong foundation of our program and guide our athletes to success both on and off the field.”

About Nick Rothwein

Nick Rothwein is no stranger to Kingsway. A proud 2019 Kingsway graduate, Nick was a standout member of the Cross-Country Team during his high school years. Since 2023, he has been employed as a High School History Teacher at Kingsway, where he is known for his enthusiasm, dedication, and commitment to student success. Nick currently serves as Kingsway’s Head Boys Cross Country Coach, a role in which his team earned the Tri-County Conference Royal Division title.

Nick also has roots in the girls’ lacrosse program. In 2024, he served as Kingsway’s Assistant Girls Lacrosse Coach, where he worked tirelessly with student-athletes during the Marlton summer lacrosse league, fostering growth, teamwork, and skill development. His hands-on coaching style and ability to inspire players have been instrumental in the program’s development.

June Cioffi, Kingsway's Athletic Director, shared her enthusiasm for Nick's appointment, stating, "Nick is a dedicated coach and educator who has already made a significant impact on our programs. His ability to connect with students and motivate them to excel is unmatched. We are excited to see the energy, passion, and knowledge he will bring to the girls' lacrosse program as the new head coach."

As Nick Rothwein steps into this new role, his commitment to fostering a positive and competitive environment remains steadfast. "I'm extremely grateful and excited for the opportunity to lead the girls' lacrosse program at Kingsway," said Coach Rothwein. "The program is composed of talented and dedicated athletes, high-character individuals, and a growing spirit of camaraderie. I look forward to helping the players and program grow and building upon the success of previous seasons. Above all, it is an honor to be coaching at my alma mater and represent our motto of Committed to Excellence in this new role. Together, the Kingsway girls' lacrosse players and staff will strive to make the Kingsway community proud."

Coach Rothwein's appointment marks the beginning of an exciting new chapter for Kingsway's Girls' Lacrosse Team, and the entire district eagerly anticipates the program's continued success under his leadership.
