

JROTC

THE JUNIOR RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS (JROTC)
IS A FEDERAL PROGRAM THAT TEACHES HIGH SCHOOL
STUDENTS LEADERSHIP AND CITIZENSHIP SKILLS

Curriculum

- JROTC teaches a variety of subjects, including American history, geography, health, and communications. The curriculum is designed to be relevant to 21st century education and meets Common Core State Standards.

Core values

- JROTC emphasizes values such as leadership, character, and community service. The JROTC Cadet Creed encourages cadets to work to improve their family, school, and country.

Uniform

- Students in JROTC wear a uniform that reflects the branch of the military they are associated with.

Instructors

- JROTC instructors are retired officers and enlisted personnel from the Navy, Army, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

Benefits

- JROTC can help students develop self-discipline, self-confidence, and leadership skills. Some high schools grant core credits for JROTC courses. JROTC can also be beneficial for college applications, as it shows dedication to a structured program and involvement in community service.
