Pictured with Mykenzie are students Kassiah Buehl (W), Jaina Bissell (W), Izabelle Likar (T) and Parker Shaughnessy (PT).

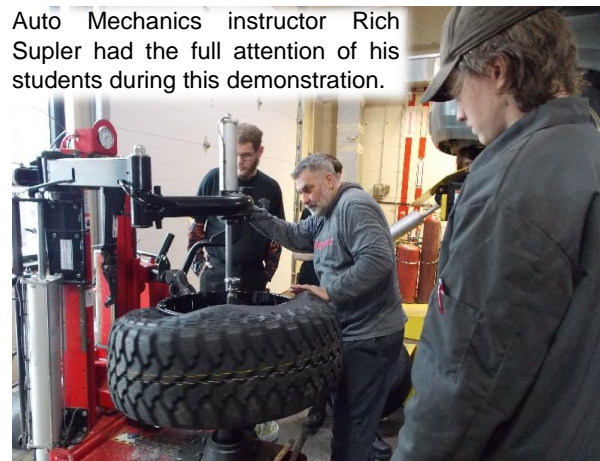

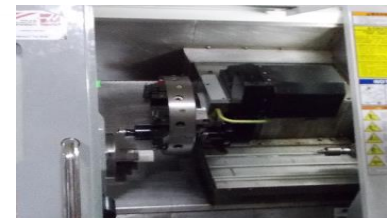

WACTC Health Occupations and Practical Nursing completer Mykenzie Tripp recently spent the day with our Health Occupations students demonstrating difficult activities the elderly are faced with every day and ways to help them.

Fort Cherry senior Tom Boris is a second year Machine Shop student who enjoys trap shooting, riding dirt bikes, racing go-karts, and snowboarding. Tom is a member of Fort Cherry's Bocce Team, president of the Fort Cherry Faith Fortifier club, a Unified Bocce Ball Team participant, and a volunteer at the McDonald Library. His future plans include college and law school. Congratulations!

Machine Shop instructor Keith Myers working with students Cesar Jandres-Ramos (W), Gabe Lutz (CH) and Elijah Minkus (PT) on the Haas SL-20 CNC Turning Center. At left, Tom Boris (FC) is working on a project.

Auto Mechanics instructor Rich Supler had the full attention of his students during this demonstration.

Congratulations to Health Occupations students Derek Cuteri (CM), Samirali Mamurov (CM), Luke Raymond (CM), Makenzie Shrader (M) and Olivia Tatano (M) for achieving their PCT certification through the American Medical Certification Association.
