

LAWRENCE COMMUNITY MUSIC SCHOOL

Making music since 1874

Study with devoted expert teachers. Learn from a diverse curriculum. Experience a breadth of musical offerings. Participate in extensive performance opportunities. Thrive in a musical community.

Youth Ensembles

Lawrence Youth String Orchestra (LYSO)

Grades 5-8, auditioned

Lawrence Community Bands

Symphonic Band: Grades 7-12, non-auditioned

Wind Ensemble: Grades 9-12, auditioned

Lawrence Community Girl Choir

Grades 2-12 & Adults, 2 non-auditioned & 5 auditioned choirs

Musical Opportunities for all ages and abilities

- Balinese Gamelan (ages 5+)
- Chamber Ensembles (ages 6+)
- Early Childhood Music (ages birth-5)
- Music for People with Disabilities (ages 5+)
- Private Lessons (ages 5+)

Founded in 1874, the Community Music School is a nonprofit division of Lawrence University that provides music-making opportunities to individuals of all ages and abilities in Northeast Wisconsin. The study and performance of music builds creative and artistic capacities, confidence, critical thinking skills, and strong communities, and we are committed to providing music instruction to every student regardless of age, experience, or economic circumstance.

Financial aid is available to students who demonstrate need.

GET IN TOUCH

100 W. Water Street
Appleton, WI 54911

communitymusic.lawrence.edu
cms@lawrence.edu