The RSU 63 Board of Directors (the Board) prioritizes the safety and security of its students, personnel, and facilities. In support of this, the following guidelines apply to dismissal and excused time periods of students.

- I. Students are released from school only to their parents/guardians or to persons authorized by their parents.
- II. Students are released for days of religious observance upon written request of their parents/guardians.
- III. A student who becomes ill is dismissed only after suitable home arrangements have been made.
- IV. Written requests for an excused time period for dental and medical appointments will be honored when circumstances so require.
