

Portrait of a Guardian

A commitment to the success of every student, one student at a time

AGCS Core Beliefs

Lifelong Learning: Commitment to a growth mindset for students, families, and the school

Service: Volunteer time to serve and support the school community

Connections: Establish and maintain trusting relationships through respectful communication

AGCS Core Values

Positivity: Possessing a mental attitude that allows me to see the good and accomplishments of the school and my student

- Demonstrating self-awareness and self-management
- Regulating emotions, showing honesty and integrity

Accountability: Being a partner in holding students to high expectations

- Making responsible decisions on behalf of students
- Seeking clarity from trusted sources

Confidence: Believing in the school and working together to solve problems

- Modeling problem-solving and encouraging students to self-advocate
- Following the AGCS chain of communication

Kindness: Viewing the relationship with the school as a partnership to build community

- Demonstrating social awareness and fostering relationship skills
- Showing empathy, appreciating diversity, and listening to understand

