

Edwin A. Buthmann Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship fund is an endowment of gifts given in memory of Edwin A. Buthmann, Scoutmaster of Troop 2 and Sunday School Teacher of the former United Presbyterian Church of Lawrence, MA. This award has been designated to assist graduating students of the following five public High Schools: Andover High School, Lawrence High School, Methuen High School, North Andover High School and Salem, NH High School including any active Boy Scout who resides in the community served by these Public Schools. This scholarship is intended for students who will study to pursue careers in professional scouting and/or a profession related to social or community services with an emphasis on counseling or educating youth. This award will defray the cost of textbooks and related educational materials.
