JUBILEO 2025
El Mensaje de San Lucas—
Formación Parroquial.

Todos están cordialmente invitados el domingo 23 de febrero, inmediatamente después de la misa de 12 del mediodía, para analizar más de cerca el Evangelio de Lucas, el cual estaremos escuchamos en la misa de los domingos este año. El padre Mateo dirigirá esta discusión sobre uno de los libros más bellamente escritos del Nuevo Testamento. Esta sesión ofrece una oportunidad para profundizar su comprensión de la vida, el ministerio y las enseñanzas de Jesús a través de las Escrituras y el canto.

TERCER DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Este pasaje de la Escritura se hace realidad cuando es escuchado.”

Perspectiva Salesiana

Las palabras son como átomos. Ellas pueden curar. Ellas pueden energetiar. Ellas pueden extender y mejorar la calidad de vida.

Las palabras también pueden herir. Ellas pueden dividir. Ellas pueden envenenar. Ellas pueden destruir.

San Francisco de Sales entendía que nuestras PALABRAS – lo que decimos, como lo decimos- tienen un impacto muy poderoso en los demás. Por eso él ofrece el siguiente consejo: “Que tu lenguaje sea suave, abierto, sincero, franco, que no afecte a nadie y sea honesto.” La integridad, la justicia y la equidad deben ser sellos distintivos de nuestro lenguaje. No debemos darle vueltas al asunto. Debemos hablar directamente y desde el fondo de nuestro corazón. No debemos medir nuestras palabras hasta el punto en que no comunicamos nada. Aun así, ser honesto no requiere que seamos crueles o que “acumulemos” diciendo todo lo que debe ser dicho en un momento en particular. Cuando tengamos dudas, nos dice San Francisco: “Nunca es apropiado decir algo que vaya en contra de la verdad.”

“Nunca le des a los demás la oportunidad para que crean que se están diciendo cosas malas sobre ellos.” Cuando hablen en público, sean tan universales como sea posible. Cuando tengan que hablar en privado, háganlo con sensibilidad y discreción. Nunca utilicen palabras en formas que hieran a otras personas o que hagan que los demás piensen que ustedes los están hiriendo.

“Nunca ganamos nada por medio la crudeza.” No importa cuán rectos o nobles sean nuestros valores, no ganaremos nada si los promovemos con palabras que son brutales y que hieran a los demás.

rites of welcome and acceptance

This weekend we are celebrating the Rites of Welcome and Acceptance for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). We welcome three Catechumens—Dan Stux, Cody Becker and Alli Garrett, as they journey to Full Communion in the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil, where they will be Baptized, Confirmed and receive First Eucharist. We also welcome five Candidates—Drew Blankenship, Terre Hall, Mike Methvin, Laura Downs and Stephanie Cinocco, as they prepare to be Confirmed at the Easter Vigil. We keep them in our prayers over the coming months as they move through the steps leading to their Initiation.

DOUBLE OSFS JUBILEE
A Year of Gratitude & Hope

RETREAT ON THE RUN

A Mini Weekly Retreat

1. Find a quiet place and take a moment to be conscious that you're in the loving and living presence of God. 2. Read the reflection slowly and prayerfully until a word or idea grabs your attention. 3. In the silence of your heart, talk to God about whatever is stirred up in your heart. Stay with this silent prayer for a while. 4. As you close, offer thanksgiving for God's loving presence during this time and all times. 5. Take the word or phrase from your prayer and carry it as you go about your day.

REFLECTION

"God has placed you in this world to use his goodness for you, by giving you his grace and his glory. For this he has given you the understanding to know him, the memory to remember him, the will to love him, the imagination to represent to yourself his blessings, the eyes to see the wonders of his work, the tongue to praise him."

(Introduction to the Devout Life 1.10)

St. Francis highlights that our very existence is a gift. We did not earn life; it was given freely by God. This truth encourages us to adopt a heart of gratitude for the gifts of life and the countless blessings we experience daily.

Adapted from "Retreats on the Run" by the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales

SEASONED CITIZENS' LUNCHEON

Mark your calendars for the next event for OLGC seniors! It's Thursday, February 13 when the "Full Hearts" theme will be featured. It's timely, of course, since Valentine's Day is just a day later. As usual, doors to DeSales Hall will open at noon. Start looking through your closets for something red or pink to wear to get in the spirit and add to the festivity of the day. Reservations are required and easily made: RSVP to bit.ly/seasoned-citizens-feb2025, email seasonedcitizens@olgcv.org or call Dagny, 703.281.5525. Please note that take-home meals are only available for homebound OLGC parishioners. Email Heidi, heidilinksnyder@gmail.com to make arrangements.

The Book Swap table will be up and running. Bring one or two recent books or jigsaw puzzles (nothing else, please) to provide good choices for guests to take home. This popular feature wouldn't be possible without your donations. Thank you!

EARLY SIGNS AND SYMPTOMS OF ALZHEIMER'S AND DEMENTIA Cont'd.

New problems with words in speaking or writing: People living with these illnesses may have trouble following or joining a conversation. They may stop in the middle of a conversation and have no idea how to continue, or they may repeat themselves. They may struggle with vocabulary, have trouble naming a familiar object or use the wrong name, i.e. calling a "watch" a "hand-clock." A typical age-related change: having trouble sometimes finding the right word.

Misplacing things and losing the ability to retrace steps: They put things in unusual places; lose things and are unable to go back over their steps to find them again. They may accuse others of stealing, especially as the disease progresses. Typical age-related change: Misplacing things from time to time and retracing steps to find them.

Decreased or poor judgment: They may experience changes in judgment or decision-making; use poor judgment when dealing with money or pay less attention to grooming or keeping themselves clean. Typical age-related change: Making a bad decision or mistake occasionally, like neglecting to change the oil in the car.

Withdrawal from work or social activities: They may experience changes in the ability to hold or follow a conversation. As a result, they may withdraw from hobbies, social activities, or other engagements; may have trouble keeping up with a favorite team or activity. Typical age-related change: Sometimes feeling uninterested in family or social obligations.

Changes in mood and personality: They may experience mood and personality changes, can become confused, suspicious, depressed, fearful, or anxious. They may be easily upset at home, with friends or when out of their comfort zone. Typical age-related change: Developing very specific ways of doing things and becoming irritable when a routine is disrupted.

Next week you'll read about healthy habits for your brain.

JOIN US FOR THE NEXT OLGc BOOK STUDY!

Voices of Wisdom in the Magisterium

Starting Tuesday morning, February 4, our five-week book study will explore Four Women Doctors of the Church by Mary T. Malone. This inspiring book introduces us to four extraordinary women—Hildegard of Bingen, Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, and Therese of Lisieux—each known for their intelligence, courage, and unwavering dedication to their vocations. Led by fellow parishioner and adult catechist Ann Marie Mack, this study invites all to reflect on the impact these women had on the Church, their faith, and the role of women in sharing the Gospel.

Tuesday mornings February 4, 11, 18, 25 and March 4, 9:30-10:45a in Fr. Brisson Room, St. Joseph Center

Due to limited seating, please RSVP to Cheryl Jones if you plan to attend: cheryl.mcmillan.jones@gmail.com
