a. School News

- Cap and Gown pick up day will be announced soon
- Senior fee if you already have a cap and gown is $30 for the diploma and diploma cover (to Herff Jones)
- Officer Conrad spoke, has been here 2 years. Forms relationships with kids and uses knowledge from previous jobs to help kids and parents. New superintendent wants to have an officer in every school. (currently 1 officer for 2 elementary school). Since Officer Brown will be full time at East, Officer Farmer will be focusing on investigations.
- We had a teacher not be able to come back, so Brandon Boehman came back to the classroom to fill his shoes. Tori Brown has stepped up to take on many of Boehman duties. Tori is also over Course Extension and Etowah had almost 200 courses passed by students because of this program. Thank you, Ms. Brown!
- Delaney Campbell (ELA teacher) was hired as ILS at Mill Creek. Sarah Densmore moved from ESOL to ELA. And we hired a limited contract person to fill the ESOL spot.

b. Extracurricular/Athletics

- Construction program received a grant for $2,500. Will be used to record OSHA training
- Officer Malto given an award for new teacher of the year for JROTC
- ROTC competing with robotics. In first competition they finish 11/29 teams
- Marksmanship Team has their highest score in history and they are ranked 4th in the nation
- 4 GMAE students for chorus
- Cherokee County student film festival is underway. Etowah does have some students entering
- Hired new football coach. Coach Vavre from Sprayberry. He is very excited to be here!
- Flight Club: elementary wanted the kids to come back and read to them in the winter. In the Spring, the elementary schools would like the students to come and do a program about "kindness"

Agenda

- Students (juniors and seniors) can NOT buy Prom tickets if they have any school debt
- EHS has about a $6000 lunch debt. If the kids do not pay, the school has to and can't do things like rebuild the building that houses the Track and Field items
- Shop with an Eagle went well again.
- Josh Malcom was out to visit Etowah to make sure we are compliant in all building issues.
- The Wrestling team won the Region!
- Basketball Boys and Girls are both doing GREAT!

c. Upcoming Events

- East Wing wants to start something on main campus called the Horizon center. It would not be one on one tutoring, more like a group time for students to work together and have someone that can help,
- Next week is counselor appreciation week
- SAT in school the Friday before Spring Break March 28th
- On County Website, Mary Elizabeth does a short video called The Lift to summarize the work sessions of the board
- Students were emailed their transcripts. Parents need to go into StudentVue to see it.
