DARING TO DREAM

In the early 1900's, Bessie Coleman's dream was to fly. But she was African American AND a woman -- so she was denied admission to U.S. flying schools. So Bessie worked as a manicurist to save money to go to school in France, where she got her pilot's license in 1921. Then she returned to thrill American crowds in stunt flying shows. When she became a celebrity, Bessie refused to perform any place where African Americans weren't admitted. She died in a plane crash in 1926.

FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

LOCAL HARVEST OF THE MONTH

VEGETABLE

Sweet Potatoes

Often called "yams" (although they're not really the same thing), sweet potatoes are among the most nutritious veggies of all. They have a natural, delightful sweetness that increases with storage and with cooking.
