

Harvey County Drug Free Youth is a coalition dedicated to preventing drug and alcohol use by our youth. Studies show that kids' brains are not developed until the age of 25, and it's important to protect the brain as it grows and develops. Due to that, it is so important that we talk to our kids about the risks of teenage drug and alcohol use. Please take the following survey to help us in our efforts.

PARENTS

We need your input

PARENT SURVEY

Harvey County Drug Free Youth Coalition

Our Community
Our Kids
Our Responsibility

For more information contact Melinda Hiebert with Mirror at 316-283-6743 X 122.