5. Public Review Update -

Carline Fried

- As of January 29, 2025, no public review feedback submissions have been submitted.

6. Review Updated edition of Bedford, Freeman & Worth materials -

Carline Fried

- The book and online materials that the committee has been reviewing is Statistics and Probability with Applications (High School) 4th edition. On January 22, 2025 BFW representatives Jeanette Fougeron (in person) and Travis Long (virtual) presented to the committee. At that time, the committee learned of the 5th edition to be released for purchase in June. The new Statistics and Probability with Applications (High School) 5th edition was shared with the committee. After the presentation the committee decided that they wanted to be able to consider the 5th edition. Therefore, during the meeting on January 29, the committee completed reviewing the updated 5th edition, and rubric scores were entered.

7. Reach a Consensus on Introduction to Statistics Curriculum -

Carline Fried

- The committee made a decision to move forward with, Bedford, Freeman & Worth, Statistics and Probability with Applications (High School) 5th edition. The printed version is currently on display for review, an updated digital platform is being released on June 3, 2025, therefore, public display will extend until September 8, 2025.

8. Future Meeting Dates-

Carline Fried

- No formal meetings will be held. The date for the presentation to the Governing Board will be determined Spring 2025, once Governing Board dates are posted for 2025-2026 school year. Carline Fried will email the committee members with calendar updates.
