WELCOME MR. BLAKE!

Colton Blake, a choir clinician who works with singers all over the country, visited the Harwood Choir on Thursday. He brought fresh energy and insight to their UIL contest preparations. His dynamic approach inspired new musical ideas, encouraged deeper engagement from students, and made the rehearsal process both productive and extra fun!

"MONSTERS ARE DUE ON MAIN STREET"

Seventh grade on-level students prepared to read "Monsters are Due on Maple Street" by discussing the Cold War and the implications of rising suspicion. Students teamed up to build the tallest towers possible, but they were told each team had one saboteur in the group!

Students began accusing one another and lost focus of their goal to build the towers in an effort to catch the imposters in their group. Ultimately, they learned that there were no saboteurs in the group -- and that fear and suspicion are dangerous weapons! Students will continue to perform the "Monsters" play in classes through the middle of next week.
