ACADEMIC HONESTY

Honor in class work and examinations are more important than any grade that may be received. Students are to assume the responsibility of not cheating, of not giving the appearance of cheating, of not contributing to the cheating of others, and for reporting violation of this responsibility to teachers and/or administrators. Students reporting cheating violations will be protected from harassment, ridicule, and criticism for demonstrating their convictions to honor and honesty.

An important part of academic honesty is avoiding any intentional or unintentional plagiarism. Plagiarism can be presenting someone else's ideas as your own or using another person's ideas or work without proper credit. Practice academic honesty in all work that you do.

Grade and/or discipline consequences may apply to any occurrences of academic dishonesty.
