Dear Counselor:

The University of Arkansas at Monticello College of Technology-Crossett (UAM-CTC) will award Technical Scholarships to selected seniors at area high schools who plan to attend UAM-CTC during the upcoming school year. To be considered, the senior must meet the requirements for the program for which he/she is applying. This scholarship is for tuition only and will vary in value depending on the student's program of study.

This scholarship will be awarded to a senior on the basis of academic performance, recommendations, financial need, and school activities. The applicant must have a final high school grade point average of 2.0 or higher to be eligible to receive the scholarship. Seniors applying for the scholarship must complete the following requirements:

1. Submit a tuition scholarship application to UAM-CTC by Wednesday, March 27, 2024.
2. Submit an online admission application to UAM-CTC by Wednesday, March 27, 2024.
3. Submit a high school transcript (seventh semester) by Wednesday, March 27, 2024.
4. Submit an ACT, SAT or Accuplacer score. If the student does not have an ACT or SAT, the Accuplacer entrance test can be taken at UAM-CTC or UAM-Monticello. The student must call, schedule, and take the test by Wednesday, March 27, 2024.
5. Submit three UAM-CTC recommendation forms, not letters, completed by two (2) teachers and one (1) school administrator or counselor.

All applications, UAM-CTC tuition scholarship recommendation forms, transcripts and test scores should be submitted to me at the following address:

LaTeasha Franklin, Counselor
UAM College of Technology Crossett
1326 Highway 52 W
Crossett, AR 71635

Your assistance in notifying students of this scholarship opportunity will be greatly appreciated. Enclosed are several scholarship packets with letters to be distributed to interested students. Feel free to make copies or contact us should you need additional packets.

Sincerely,

LaTeasha Franklin
Counselor
