

AP[®] Psychology

At Grand Prairie High School

A one-semester, introductory college course in psychology and human behavior.

Explore the ideas, theories, and methods of the scientific study of behavior and mental processes. You'll examine the concepts of psychology through reading and discussion including analyzing data from psychological research studies.

Students will learn and apply their knowledge on cases relatable to their own experiences as they effectively communicate ideas.

Photo: live.static.flickr.com

Why take AP?

01

Critical Thinking

This course is not just about memorization. It is about learning how to think critically and analyze complex information.

02

Prep for college

Prepare for the rigor and expectations of college-level work.

03

Gain Understanding

This course introduces students to the scientific study of human behavior.

04

Opportunities

Demonstrating your commitment and knowledge in this field can add to any future career.

Skills You'll Learn In This Curriculum

Connecting

psychological concepts to real-life situations.

Analyzing

data to find trends and draw conclusions.

Explaining

the impact of functions of the body on behavior.

Developing

critical thinking skills as they analyze data.

AP[®] courses can lead you to numerous choices of College Majors and Careers

Majors:

Advertising
American Studies
Anthropology
Area Studies
Art History, Criticism, and Conservation
Art Teacher Education
Athletic Training
Business Administration and Management
Child Care Management

Careers:

Actors
Administrative Assistants and Secretaries
Adult Educators
Advanced-Practice Nurses
Advertising Sales Agents
Advertising, Marketing, and Public Relations Managers
Child Care Workers
Clinical Psychologists

GPHS ALIGNMENT COURSES:

Pairs Well With:
AP Biology

CTE Programs of Study:
Legal Studies
Marketing

