

AP[®] Spanish Literature

At Grand Prairie High School

Build your language skills and cultural knowledge by exploring works of literature written in Spanish.

Using Spanish to communicate, you'll read, analyze, discuss, and write about works by Spanish, Latin-American, and U.S. Hispanic authors of different periods.

Recommended Prerequisites: Successful completion of AP Spanish Language and/or in their fourth year of high-school level study.

Photo by Stella Giordano via Pixabay

Why take AP?

01

Reason 1

Can help prepare for college level courses in Spanish or receive credit.

02

Reason 2

Fun music, movies, and field trips.

03

Reason 3

Bilingual skills can lead to higher salaries at work.

04

Reason 4

Save money and time when credit for college received.

Skills You'll Learn In This Curriculum

Interpreting,

analyzing, and comparing literary works.

Relating

literary works to cultural and historical contexts.

Writing

a literary analysis using correct terms.

Discussing

literature and comparing with works of art.

AP[®] courses can lead you to numerous choices of College Majors and Careers

Majors:

Area Studies
Comparative Literature
English
Ethnic Studies
Film Studies
History
Linguistics
Spanish
Theater Arts

Careers:

Anthropologists and Archaeologists
Arts Administrators
Camera Operators & Film and Video Editors
community Organizers and Activists
Copuwriters
Editors
Foreign Service Officers
Interpreters / Translators
Lawyers

GPHS ALIGNMENT COURSES:

Pairs Well With:

AP Pre-Cal
AP Calculus
AP Statistics

Take Next:
AP Physics C

CTE Programs of Study:
Digital Media Tech & Comm

