Happy Groundhog Day!

Will it be 6 more weeks of winter, or an early Spring? I am sure your students wouldn't mind another snow day...

Remember, report cards go home this week. Please ask your students on Tuesday afternoon to view them, and reach out to counselors with concerns.

Additional Announcements

Tardies

We wanted to give a friendly reminder to families that students must be on time to school and class in order to fully access their education. Chronic tardiness to school has continued to be a major issue. If students arrive late to school or class without an excuse note, they risk consequences through the application of the code of conduct. In addition, they lose the ability to make up missed work. Please help us emphasize the importance of arriving on time with your students.
