What do I do if ICE comes to my home or my job?

Create and Prepare your Plan of Action

- Step 1: Plan for who will take care of your child(ren) or elderly relatives in case of an immigration emergency
 - Whether it be legal, casual, or a verbal agreement, ensure that someone is able and willing to care for your child if you cannot.
 - Take note of important medications, allergies, personal information, and all other instructions that someone would need to know when taking guardianship of your child.
- Step 2: Gather and make copies of all immigration and identification documents
 - Make sure you place all important documents in a secure space that friends and family can easily access in the event of an emergency.
 - Examples of documents you should secure if possible: Birth certificates, Marriage licenses, passports, immigration documents, financial documents, proof of residence in the United States
- Step 3: Memorize at least 2 phone numbers
 - If you're detained by ICE, you will not have access to your phone. It is important to memorize the phone number of trusted loved ones and a lawyer if accessible.
- Step 4: Renew any forms of identification and/or apply for a form of affirmative relief
 - If you have a license, passport, proof of benefits, or pending applications that are going to expire in the next 6 months, renew everything with your most up-to-date information.
 - If you are or may be eligible for any type of relief, see a legal service provider about applying to begin the process of changing your immigration status.
- Step 5: Know your rights!
 - Click here to order a 'red card' that lists your Constitutional Rights and emphasizes those that are most helpful during an immigration emergency.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

- ✓ The Constitutional Rights apply to anyone and everyone physically present in the United States regardless of their immigration status and place of birth. These are important to keep in mind if you are confronted with ICE at home or your workplace.

What are my Constitutional Rights?

1. The right to always remain silent.
2. The right to not open the door to anyone without a legal and valid warrant signed by a U.S judge.
3. The right to speak with an attorney.
4. The right to not speak or sign any documents without an attorney present.

ICE is at my Door. Now What?

- ✓ Stay calm, take a breath and remember your rights. Show them your red card or state that you are exercising your rights.
- ✓ Keep your screen door closed or open a window to address the officers and answer as little questions as possible. The less they know about you, the better.
- ✓ Demand a legally binding warrant if they insist on having the right to enter your home. They can only enter your home if you open the door to them or have a signed judicial warrant. Click here to judicial warrant vs. an ICE warrant.

ICE is at my Place of Work. What do I do?

- ✓ Being confronted by ICE is a traumatizing event and extremely stressful. It's important to stay as calm as possible. Take a deep breath and remember your Constitutional rights.
- ✓ Do not try to run away as this can be used against you.
- ✓ Ask if you are being detained or are free to leave
- ✓ Say as little as possible and state you are exercising your rights. ICE will use tactics to scare or threaten you into answering questions. You do not have to say or sign anything without an attorney present.

¿Qué hago si ICE viene a mi casa o a mi trabajo?

Prepare su plan de acción

Paso 1: Planifique quién cuidará de sus hijos o parientes mayores en caso de una emergencia de inmigración.

- Ya sea de forma legal, o un acuerdo verbal, asegúrese de que hay alguien capaz y dispuesto a cuidar de su hijo si usted no puede hacerlo.

Paso 2: Reúna y haga copias de todos los documentos de inmigración e identificación en un lugar seguro al que sus amigos y familiares puedan acceder fácilmente en caso de emergencia.

Paso 3: Memorice al menos 2 números de teléfono

Paso 4: Renovar cualquier forma de identificación y/o solicitar una forma de ayuda afirmativa

Paso 5: ¡Conozca sus derechos!

- Haga clic aquí para pedir una "tarjeta roja" que digan sus derechos constitucionales que son más útiles durante una emergencia de inmigración.

Nota: Para ver ejemplos de lo que debe preparar e incluir en su Plan de Acción, consulte aquí nuestra hoja informativa "Cómo encontrar a un familiar detenido"

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

- ✓ The Los Derechos Constitucionales se aplican a cualquier persona presente en los Estados Unidos, independientemente de su estatus migratorio y lugar de nacimiento. Es importante tenerlos en cuenta si se enfrenta al ICE en su casa o en su lugar de trabajo.

¿Cuáles son mis derechos constitucionales?

1. El derecho a permanecer en silencio.
2. El derecho a no abrir la puerta a nadie sin una orden legal firmada por un juez de E.E.U.U.
3. Derecho a hablar con un abogado.
4. Derecho a no hablar ni firmar ningún documento sin la presencia de un abogado.

ICE está en mi lugar de trabajo. ¿Qué hago?

- ✓ Enfrentarse con ICE es una situación traumatizante y estresante. Es importante mantenerse lo más calmado posible. Respira y recuerde sus derechos constitucionales.
- ✓ No intente huir, ya que puede ser utilizado en su contra.
- ✓ Pregunte si está detenido o es libre de irse.
- ✓ Diga lo menos posible y declare que está ejerciendo sus derechos. ICE utilizará tácticas para asustarlos o amenazarlos para que responda a las preguntas. No tiene que decir ni firmar nada sin la presencia de un abogado.

ICE está en mi puerta. ¿Y ahora qué?

- ✓ Mantenga la calma, respire y recuerde sus derechos. Muéstales tu tarjeta roja o indica que estás ejerciendo tus derechos.
- ✓ Mantén la puerta cerrada o abre una ventana para hablarle a los agentes. Responde el menor número de preguntas posible. Lo menos que sepan de tí, mejor.
- ✓ Pregunte por una orden judicial si insisten en tener derecho a entrar en tu casa. Sólo pueden entrar en su casa si usted les abre la puerta o tiene una orden judicial firmada. Haga clic aquí para ver una orden judicial frente a una orden administrativa.

File No. _____

Date: _____

To: Any immigration officer authorized pursuant to sections 236 and 287 of the Immigration and Nationality Act and part 287 of title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, to serve warrants of arrest for immigration violations

I have determined that there is probable cause to believe that _____ is removable from the United States. This determination is based upon:

- ☐ the execution of a charging document to initiate removal proceedings against the subject;
- ☐ the pendency of ongoing removal proceedings against the subject;
- ☐ the failure to establish admissibility subsequent to deferred inspection;
- ☐ biometric confirmation of the subject's identity and a records check of federal databases that affirmatively indicate, by themselves or in addition to other reliable information, that the subject either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under U.S. immigration law; and/or
- ☐ statements made voluntarily by the subject to an immigration officer and/or other reliable evidence that affirmatively indicate the subject either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under U.S. immigration law.

YOU ARE COMMANDED to arrest and take into custody for removal proceedings under the Immigration and Nationality Act, the above-named alien.

The constitution requires review by a judge or neutral magistrate for a warrant to be enforceable. Here, you can see that this warrant is only reviewed/signed by an Immigration officer and NOT a Judge. Therefore, you DO NOT have to permit entry into your home.

La constitución de los E.E.U.U. requiere que una orden sea revisada por un juez o magistrado neutral. Esta orden fue revisada por un Oficial de Inmigración ("Immigration Officer") y NO un Juez. Por esa razón, NO TIENE QUE/ PUEDE NEGAR entrada a su domicilio.
