

Voluntary Benefits

Do you have claims to file?

Now that you've selected the right coverage for your needs, it is time to maximize it.

› If you are enrolled in the Group Accident coverage, there may be claims that you are eligible to file! Remember that this plan will pay a benefit for treatment of accidental injuries, which include lacerations, broken/dislocated bones, and more.

This plan also contains a wellness benefit- be sure to take advantage of the wellness component of your Accident plan! You do not have to have an accident throughout the year to file on the wellness portion of your plan.

› If you are enrolled in the Group Critical Illness coverage, there may be claims that you are eligible to file! Remember that your critical illness plan will pay a lump sum benefit in the event that you are diagnosed with a covered condition.

This plan contains a wellness benefit that you and any covered family members may be eligible to claim each year for completing a covered wellness exam.

› If you are enrolled in the Group Hospital plan, there may be claims to that you are eligible to file! A Hospital Indemnity Plan will pay a benefit for being admitted, as an inpatient, to the hospital as well as daily benefits!
