Fargo South High School senior football players, Xander Moody and Keaton Docken, will sign their letters of intent to participate in college football on Wednesday, February 5 at 8:00 a.m. in room C30 at South High on National Signing Day.

Moody will be signing a letter of intent to continue his education and football career at Valley City State University in Valley City, North Dakota. He is a three-time letter-winner in football at South High and was named to the Eastern Dakota Conference All Conference Football Team this past fall. He also served as one of the captains for the Bruin football team. Moody also participated in wrestling and boys track and field at South High.

Docken will be signing his letter of intent to continue his education and football career at Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He is a three-time letter-winner in football and an Eastern Dakota Conference All Conference Football Team Honorable Mention in 2023 and 2024.
