Morning Announcements

- Today's lunch is Buffalo Chicken Flatbread OR The Max Stuffed Cheese Breadsticks.
- Attention Royals, get ready to spread some holiday cheer and support this year's prom! Dedicate a Christmas carol to a friend, teacher, or classmate, and our choir will go to their classroom, and sing your chosen holiday song! It's a great way to celebrate your friends and teachers—all while supporting prom! Don't miss out— the song dedications will be sold in the back of the commons this Thursday and Friday for $5! Let's bring some festive fun to our school.
- Current Freshman, Sophomores and Juniors: Want to get involved and make Larkin a better place for all Royals? Get a Peer Leader application from the door in B110 or B102. Join us in 2025!
- 12 Days Before Winter Break ~ Today is Tacky Not Classy, wear your best ugly sweater and tomorrow is Shine bright like a diamond, wear holiday lights and other decorations.
