Morning Announcements

- Today's lunch is Loaded Nachos OR Vegetarian Loaded Nachos.
- Attention Royals, it's time to spread some love and support this year's prom! Dedicate a special love song to that special someone—whether it's a friend, teacher, or classmate—and our choir will come to their classroom and sing to them with your chosen tune! Song dedications, balloons, and cards will be sold this Thursday and Friday, for just $8! The dedications will be delivered next Friday, 2/14, Valentine's Day. Don't miss out on this sweet way to show someone some love all while supporting prom!
- A message from HOSA ~ Vampires might try to steal your blood, but donating is the better way to go! On Wednesday, February 5th, there will be a blood drive in Room D59. Your help is greatly appreciated and your efforts will be recognized at graduation with a cord if you donate blood 4 times. Donate blood to save lives.
- Hey Royals! Come support the U-46's Dual Language program by eating at Chipotle in Hoffman Estates TODAY. Check out the flyer that was emailed to you this morning.
- Come join Crossroads tomorrow morning at 7am in A14 to learn about the gospel and watch testimonial videos.
